Rep. DelGobbo Receives Additional Appointments

Named to Regulations Review, Bonding, Screening

NAUGATUCK—State Representative Kevin M. DelGobbo (R-70th, Naugatuck) has been appointed to the state legislature's Regulations Review Committee. This committee reviews and must approve regulations proposed by state agencies before they can take effect.

The 14-member committee is composed of both Republicans and Democrats in the state House and Senate. Connecticut is one of just a few states that require legislators to review and make changes to regulations proposed by state agencies. The committee was created to assure that regulations imposed on Connecticut citizens follow the intent of the state legislature when adopted as authorized to implement state laws.

Rep. DelGobbo also was reappointed as a member of the Bonding Subcommittee of the Finance, Revenue and Bonding Committee. He also was renamed as a member of the House Republican Bill Screening Committee, which reviews the language of all proposed bills before they are brought to the full House of Representatives for debate and floor vote.

These latest appointments are in addition to Rep. DelGobbo's appointments as ranking member of the legislature's Energy and Technology Committee, and as a member of the Finance, Revenue and Bonding Committee and of the Public Safety and Homeland Security Committee.

Rep. DelGobbo serves the 70th Assembly District part of Naugatuck in the state House of Representatives.
